Dec 15

Advertisers will please bear in mind that the circulation of the DAILY NEWS is more than DOUBLE that of the Daily Herald, and greater than the combined circulation of the Daily and Weekly Herald. As one proof of this fact, the list of Letters remaining in the Post-Office is advertised in the NEWS, as BY LAW REQUIRED.

The Herald came out yesterday, again, with another attack upon us, and intimates that it is dying groan. The public fully understand this matter, and we do not intend to trouble them much longer with this controversy; we have nearly finished the Herald, and the only remaining notices which we shall have to write, will be its obituary. We are firm and steadfast, while the Herald is declining, as with a rapid consumption; the hectic flush long since appeared on its face, and it is now passing through the last convulsive agony. We only propose to show up its consistency on the present occasion, and expose its lying character to the public. We will conclude our general remarks by saying to the public that if they want their advertisements circulated all over town, they must bring them to the NEWS; and if they want their job printing executed neater and much cheaper than by the Herald, they must come to this office, and we will do it. A portion of the article is answered in another column.

The Herald then goes on to say that our attacks upon it are made for the purpose of weakening its influence and circulation, and thereby injuring the Whig party, in this section of the State. We never had a desire to weaken or injure, in any possible way, the Whig party here or elsewhere; and not an item can be found in the columns of the News, from its establishment to the present time, in which we have uttered or breathed an insinuation against it, or in which we have spoken with disrespect concerning it. We challenge an investigation of the matter, and will stand or fall on the result.

When the Herald charges us with making attacks upon it, the author knows that he is uttering a falsehood. Let us have facts, sir, for they speak louder and more emphatically than words; we are warm advocates for facts, although we know that they are exceedingly disagreeable things for the Herald man.

On the 28th of December, before a word of difference had been exchanged between the Herald and News, the first named paper published a short article requesting its Whig friends arriving in town to furnish it with papers containing later news than it could receive by mail, and concludes: "We would thank them to bear this in mind, as we are a little 'too ichigish' to expect to receive favors from other quarters." This had a meaning, and it had a point, and it was intended, by the author, to have an influence. This notice was continued in its columns for some days. We perfectly understood the insinuation but made no reply.

It next came out, on the 5th of January, with an article on the Post Office printing, accompanied by a letter from Judge Joslen. In that article, it charged us with deceiving the public in regard to our circulation, and asserted that it was four hundred less than the Daily and Weekly Herald, and two hundred less than either of the weekly papers in this town.

To this, of course, we replied and defended ourselves. We then asserted that our circulation was much larger than the Herald, daily and weekly, and we still say the same, and are ready to prove it. The Herald then came again, and among other of its toothful sayings, charged us with being a "loco-foco in disguise." We replied, and administered to it a dose that was proper for its complaint. Then, on the 19th of January, it charged us with issuing a "lying extra," relative to the reported accident on the Fall River Railroad; and it had a small squib, occasionally, for a week or more afterwards.

This is the history of the controversies, and we now ask the public to say who is the aggressor? Who has invariably commenced the battles? Why the Herald, as we have above shown; and on examination of the files of the two papers will sustain us in this assertion,—although it would probably be impossible to find a file of the Herald, except at that office and with us.

The Herald has got the worst of a war which it commenced itself, and it now comes whining about our attacks upon it, and seeking the public sympathy, as a quarrelsome child would run to its mother for protection, after being severely wounded for its impudence and improper conduct.

On the 1st of January, the Herald said, "our experiment of a daily publication is yet in its infancy, and so far as we have prosecuted the undertaking, we have no reason to regret it." The proprietor of the Herald had previously expressed his satisfaction with his prospects, asserting that he had done full as well, if not better, than he anticipated.

In yesterday's paper, he says that through the News, he has received an injury, "by the withdrawal of business," and "that so far the entire subscriptions and advertising of the Herald both Daily and Weekly, have fallen short of the expense incurred in publishing them." Now, on which occasion did the Herald man speak the truth? On one of them he certainly lied, according to his own showing.

Again, as to the truth of the Herald, and the reliance that is to be placed on anything which it asserts. It announced, a short time ago, that its daily circulation was twice as large as the News, and its combined circulation six times as large as the News. We made it an offer of one hundred dollars, in cash, to prove either of the assertions. It said nothing, but quietly altered the notice, and said that "its daily circulation was as large as that of any other Daily paper in Newport." We still continued our offer, yet the Herald said nothing in reply, but altered its standing notice so as to read that its circulation is several times as large as any other Daily paper in Newport. Is this not uttering a wicked lie, and then slyly attempting to back out, with as good grace as possible? Yet, it is just like all the other acts of the Herald. We again say that our offer is still open, and we further add that our circulation, daily, is larger than that of the Daily and Weekly Herald combined.

We have thus essentially used up the Herald, and we know that we possess the sympathy and kind wishes of three quarters of the community.

Our circulation is daily increasing, and our advertising patronage is growing so rapidly, that we think seriously of enlarging our paper.

The gross attack in the Herald of yesterday, on Wm. H. Cranston Esq., charging him with being the author of certain articles which have appeared in the Daily News, is unwarranted, and without the shadow of truth; and what should have induced the editor of that paper to make such assertions, we are wholly unable to conceive. We are indebted to Mr. Cranston for many favors, for which we shall ever be grateful; but that he has ever wrote a line for us against the Herald, is false. We are capable of defending ourselves with our own pen, without sending to our former places of residence to procure letters to substantiate our truth and veracity, and testimonials in regard to our moral character; and when a man, after residing in a community six months, is driven to this, it is very evident that something is wrong.

Mr. Cranston is fully capable of defending himself, and we cheerfully give place to the following letter.—Ed. News.

Newport, January 31st, 1848.

ORIN F. JACKSON, ESQ.,

Dear Sir:—Mr. S. S. Eastman and his co-laborers in the Herald, have made a characteristic attack upon me, in their paper of yesterday, which demands a reply. I am there charged as being your assistant, and also as being the author of articles which have appeared in the News, relative to the Herald. In the first place I am free to admit that I have written articles of a literary and miscellaneous nature, for the News, at various times, both under my own name, under signatures that are known to be mine, and editorially also; but, as you well know, I have never written a single line in regard to the Herald or its proprietor, and I defy Mr. S. S. Eastman and his guardian genii to prove the contrary. He goes on to say that as far as I am concerned, "the attacks are made without any true cause, but from a most contemptible jealousy, unworthy the bosom of a decent or honorable man." Heaven forefend the charm—if it has come to that pass, that I am jealous of S. S. Eastman, or any of the particular spirits that surround and advise him! They are not in my way, and cannot be, under any possible contingency; they have no laurels to spare, and if they had, they are of such a hue as I am not ambitious of wearing.

His charge that I have made similar attacks upon the former proprietor of the Herald, is utterly false, and is spoken with the same spirit, and a like christian regard for truth, as mark his other charges against me; I never wrote a line against the former proprietor of the Herald in my life, and the only charge I have against him, and it is entertained by very many of the party in this county, is that he did not leave his mantle upon a more worthy successor. As to Mr. S. S. Eastman, personally, I had no prejudices or unkind feelings against him, when he came into this community, and should have had none, had he not dragged me before the public in the manner in which he has.

As to the circulation of the Herald, or the patronage which it receives, I know nothing and care less; I perceive that very many staunch Whigs exercise a right which he longs to them, and bestow their patronage elsewhere,—but it is not through my influence, for I never asked a man in my life to withdraw a single favor from the Herald; but, on the contrary, I have recommended patrons to that establishment, before I discovered the wolf in sheep's clothing.

The position in which Mr. S. S. Eastman has placed himself, in this community, is perfectly well understood by our citizens, and requires not a word from me. I have considered it my privilege, and acted accordingly, during the last ten years, to write for such papers as I felt disposed, and I intend to do so for the future; I never received a cent for a line, of any kind, that I ever wrote, and neither do I ever expect to. And because Mr. Eastman is compelled to hire a person to write for him, he need not suppose that I am employed in the same manner.

It is modest in him, to be sure, to say to the public that since he has owned the Herald, "there has been a great improvement in the value of the paper, &c." The public will probably say as Tristram Burgess did to Mr. McDuffie, on a former occasion, that they should prefer a less questionable authority. A few, claiming to be Whigs, who never bestowed even a cent patronage upon Mr. Atkinson, and who now hover around the Herald, for the purpose of accomplishing their own selfish objects, undoubtedly have come to that sage conclusion.

My Whig sentiments are too well known, in this community, for the public to be deceived by anything which Mr. S. S. Eastman, or any of the small Checker-back clique by which he is surrounded, and under whose influence and control he operates, can possibly say or do in regard to them.

Mr. Eastman concludes by saying that he shall take no further notice of the attacks of the proprietor of the News, or his assistant, Mr. Cranston. I, of course, have no interest in any controversy which you may have with the Herald,—but I caution Mr. S. S. Eastman to beware how he makes use of my name, at libitum, in the columns of his paper, or otherwise, because I shall take further notice of him, and in a manner that will not be quite so agreeable to him.

Yours respectfully,

W. H. CRANSTON.

THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT.—The Managers of the Washington Monument Association in Washington propose to lay the corner stone of the Monument on the 22d of February next, if the proper arrangements can be completed by that day; if not, then on the 4th of July next. The funds of the Association now amount to upwards of $300,000. The Hon John Quincy Adams has been invited to deliver the address.

MR. CLAY IN TEXAS.—The Clarksville (Texas) Star publishes Mr. Clay's Lexington speech, and thus comments upon it:

"We commend to our readers this last effort of that distinguished statesman. We ask for it a calm and unbiased reading, and we would advise all to ponder well, before they make up their minds to disregard the warning voice of one who loves his country, its Constitution and Liberty; whose life for fifty years, whose great mind and patriotic heart have been devoted to the promotion and permanency of constitutional liberty, whose fearless patriotism has ever led him to seek the right, regardless of consequences to himself."

TERIBLE STEAMBOAT DISASTER.—The New Orleans Delta of Jan. 21st, gives the following:

The steamboat Yallahusha, Capt. Scott, loaded with cotton, on her trip from Red River to this city, on Tuesday night last, was burned to the water's edge, by which terrible disaster, at least thirty-five lives were lost. To a gentleman, one of the surviving passengers, we are mainly indebted for the following particulars of the heart-rendering scene:—

About a quarter past 6 o'clock, on Tuesday night, when the majority of the passengers, numbering about one hundred in all, including the deck passengers, had retired, the alarm of fire was given—the boat was then in the middle of the stream, and opposite the plantation of Mr. V. Chopin, about 18 miles below Donaldsonville. All were instantly aroused, and as the doors of the ladies' cabin were thrown open, the dense volume of smoke rushing up from the clerk's office, near where the fire originated, almost produced suffocation. The scene of terror and wild alarm among the passengers at this moment, beggars description. The boat was immediately rounded to and headed to the shore, and as she struck the bank a general rush was made for the landing, many persons being drowned in their attempts to get on shore. As she reached the shore, Mr. C. E. Knowlton, of Donaldsonville, and two other passengers, whose names we have not heard, with great presence of mind, seized the end of the cable, and leaping on shore made it fast to a tree on the bank, in order to hold the boat in her position—but, through the culpable negligence of those on board whose duty it was to attend to such matters, the cable was not made fast on board, and the boat consequently swung out into the stream again, the engines still going, and in a few seconds was beyond the reach of those on shore. The boat afterwards drifted down stream about two miles, where striking the shore, she was made fast. Judge Mills, of Texas, lost a child, about four years of age, and one servant. The Judge having his wife and two children on board, he took a child in each hand, and in leaping overboard received a blow on one arm from a falling timber, causing him to relax his hold on one of the children, which was lost. Mrs. Mills leaped overboard with her husband, and was saved by the efforts of Major Yancy, of Natchitoches. Mr. Johnson, one of the passengers, lost three children and one grandchild—all supposed to be burnt. Mr. A. M. Alexander, formerly of Kentucky, lost two children—both girls; himself and wife were saved by swimming ashore. A brother of Mr. Alexander and his wife, and Dr. John D. Wall, of Harrison county, Texas, and his wife, were saved by swimming ashore. The Rev. Mr. Page, Episcopal minister, and two of his children, were lost. He was lost in attempting to save his family. Mrs. Page was saved. The steamer Monterey, going up stream, succeeded in rescuing two persons, who were clinging to the rudder of the Yallahusha, as she drifted down stream.

WHIG NATIONAL CONVENTION.—A letter in the New York Herald, dated Washington January 28th says that the whigs of Congress had a caucus that evening, when there were about one hundred members of the House and Senate present. Mr. Mangum presided at the meeting. The question to be considered was, "shall the whig party go into a national convention?" The Taylor men urged a postponement of the question; and Mr. Gentry, of Tennessee, spoke for an hour and a half against any decision now, in favor of a convention. He urged, it is said, the claims of General Taylor, with great force upon the meeting, and the advantages of running him independent of a convention, and by the simple primary organizations of the people. The Clay men were for a convention, and nothing short of a convention, and would, in no event, write upon Gen. Taylor until after he shall have given in an unqualified commitment to the doctrine of the whig party. The result of the caucus was a vote of ten to one in favor of a convention, and to this extent, in favor of Henry Clay. There was no vote upon a day for the convention, but a convention was resolved upon.

Thirtieth Congress—First Session.

SENATE.—Friday Jan. 23.—Leave was asked to introduce a bill to authorize the President to increase the naval establishment of the United States, which was referred. A petition in favor of purchasing Mount Vernon was laid on the table. The House bill, making further provision for the surviving widows and soldiers of the Revolution, was read a third time and passed. The Ten Regiment bill was then further discussed, and the Senate went into executive session.

In the House the business was entirely devoid of public interest.

The spirit of Anti-Rentism has at last reached old Newport; the tenants, on Bannister's wharf, made a regular revolt yesterday afternoon; a few bruised countenances was the only result.

The funeral of the late Capt. Benjamin Marshall was attended yesterday afternoon by the Masonic Fraternity, in full numbers, and an unusually large concourse of citizens.

AN UNION.—The receipts for the last year were about $48,000; number of members, 9,666.

M. Guizot has ordered a Pole to quit France within twenty-four hours, because of a speech against the Emperor of Russia at a Polish dinner.

The Dublin corporation has voted £150 for a portrait of the late Mr. O'Connell.

In New York there is an exhibition which consists of twenty or more Canary Birds, which have been trained to draw carriages, wear cocked hats and coats a la militaire, fire off cannons, dance on the tight rope, stand on their heads, &c.

"You belong to the lower classes," was the fruit said to the root of the tree upon which it grew.

AGENT FOR THE
CANTON & PEKIN TEA COMPANY
Of New York.

THIS Company, although it cannot boast of being "The oldest Tea Establishment in America," does claim to have sold during the two years of its existence, more good, pure, and unadmixed Teas, and at lower prices, than any other similar establishment in the United States.

The following is a list of their retail prices, which will be found to be nearly the same as those of similar Companies. The only difference they claim is in the quality of the Teas.

The Teas mentioned in the above catalogue are put up in Quarter, Half and Pound Packages, made perfectly air tight, and warranted to be well worth the price marked on the label; if they are not found to be so, they can be returned at any time and the money will be refunded.

The Canton and Pekin Tea Company, although not the "exclusive vendors" of the justly celebrated "Howqua Mixture," can still accommodate their customers with it, at a price and of a quality which will bear comparison with any other.

The citizens of Newport and vicinity are respectfully invited to call at the above store, 150 Thames-st., and test the qualities of these Teas, as we are confident, after purchasers make one trial, that an extensive custom will be secured. dec 8

PHALON'S CHEMICAL HAIR INVIGORATOR.

A REMEDY for all diseases of the Hair, and is restorative in all cases where baldness is not beyond the reach of art.

Naught with beauty can compare,
With soft, glossy locks of hair;
If not endowed with such by nature,
Use Phalon's Hair Invigorator

The subscriber having devoted a considerable portion of his time for twenty years to the study of the skin and the human hair, also the best means of treating and curing the same, and having, in the course of his experiments made various changes and improvements in the different articles approved as the best for such purposes, has at length, after laborious research and deep investigation, succeeded in bringing to perfection a composition, the virtues of which he challenges the world to excel.

The Chemical Hair Invigorator is composed of a number of vegetable ingredients of opposite qualities, and approved by the highest medical standard, the secret of blending and combining, which is known only to the subscriber, who has spared neither pains nor expense in bringing it before the public.

The Invigorator is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture of the hair never before attained, yet free from animal grease or essential oils. It cleanses the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action of the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which free the hair, thereby preventing baldness and gray hair, entirely frees the skin from scurf, dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and keeps it so—will positively change the hardest hair into the most soft and healthy and glossy state, also impart to it a darker color, and a true use of it will keep both the skin and hair in a healthy and luxurious state until the last period of life.

Ladies will find the Invigorator a great addition to the toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which when moistened with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place whether plain or curled. When used on children's heads it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

Invented and prepared by EDWARD PHALON, professor of Wig Making and Hair Cutting, 61 Broadway, New York.

A treatment on the Anatomy and Physiology of the Hair, with directions for preventing baldness, removing dandruff and preserving the natural beauty and softness of the hair.

Price 50 cents per bottle—large size, $1. For sale wholesale and retail by GORTON ANDERSON, No. 151 Thames street, Newport, and by J. Balch & Son, 42 South Main-street, Providence, and by druggists and hair dressers generally in Boston. Nov 16-1818

The great and only Successful Remedy for the cure of Consumption,

Dr. E. W. Vandersmith's INDIAN COUGH BALM and LUNG BALM.

Dissemination of the Lung and Throat.

White Plains, April 20, 1817.

This is to certify that I have been afflicted for five years with a cough, pain in the chest, night sweats, difficulty in breathing, etc., and I also expectorated a large quantity of frothy matter and blood, from which I was reduced to a perfect skeleton, my throat was very much ulcerated. I had lunar caustic applied to my throat twice a week, but received no benefit; I have used one hundred different kinds of Patent Medicines, recommended by my friends, but all to no purpose. A friend of mine, Mr. Willett, whose lungs had been affected for two years past, was cured by Dr. Vandersmith's Medicine. He insisted upon my trying Dr. V., and I did so. After I had used his medicine 15 days, I expectorated large quantities of yellow frothy matter, my chest expanded, and my difficulty in breathing subsided. I persevered with his medicine, and the result has been, I am perfectly cured of all my sickness. I recommend every consumptive to try Dr. V.'s medicine, I am confident it will cure you. Your sincere friend, EDWARD C. THOMPSON.

Sworn before me this 21st day of April, 1817.

Inflammation of the Lungs.

New York, June 19, 1817.

Dr. Vandersmith:—I have been subject to a cough, pain in the chest, difficulty of breathing, &c., for many years past. About four months ago I took a severe cold, which settled on my lungs. I was unable to attend to my business during the day. I would have dreadful coughing fits, that I thought it was impossible for me to survive unless I could get relief. The excessive coughing had reduced my whole body to a skeleton. I expectorated white frothy mucus, in fact, should I give the full particulars of my case, it would be almost incredible. I was recommended to try Dr. Vandersmith's Indian Cough Balm and Lung Balm. I consented; when I used it about one week, my cough decreased considerably, which gave me great hopes. I continued with the medicine according to directions, and the result has been that I am restored to health, a blessing that I have not enjoyed for years, until the present. I sincerely believe that I had made use of Dr. Vandersmith's invaluable medicine, that I would be mauling in the silent grave. Therefore I believe that I am doing nothing but what is justice, in stating the above facts, so that you may show it to all the afflicted who may call upon you to administer to them. I shall be pleased at any time to converse with the afflicted who call upon me. Your grateful patient and friend, JAMES B. HENDERSON.

Consumption.

Staten Island, June 10, 1817.

Dear Sir:—I take great pleasure in giving you my certificate, last December I was attacked with a severe cough, pain in my left side, loss of appetite, and continual raising of white and yellow mucus. Some days I raised a half-pint of mucus, streaked with blood. I have been under the treatment of a dozen physicians, I was recommended by Dr. Mitchell of Philadelphia, to use a Breathing Tub, I purchased one, I only made use of it one week, it was the cause of bringing on a hemorrhage of the lungs, which reduced me so much that I was unable to sit up, my voice was entirely destroyed, it was difficult for persons to understand me. I saw Dr. Vandersmith's Medicine recommended very strongly by a patient whom he had cured. I sent for half a dozen bottles. I received great benefit from that, which induced me to purchase a dozen bottles, I took according to the directions, and it cured me perfectly sound.

Yours, &c. ROBERT WILLSEY.

Rev. B. HIBBARD'S Vegetable and Anti-Bilious FAMILY PILLS are not found to be the most convenient, the best physic you ever tried, and fully equal to any recommendation of them.

You do not find that one of these pills does more good than from four to six of any other kind, every agent stands ready to receive the empty boxes and refund the money.

These Pills are recommended as being without an equal in all Bilious attacks, affections of the Liver, the Lungs, Stomach, or Bowels, caused by taking cold, or obstructed perspiration. They carry off the bile, cleanse the stomach and bowels, and open the closed pores of the body, thereby letting out the insensible perspiration through its accustomed channels, and relieving at once the internal organs. Also in old chronic affections, as Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, &c., Min I the Directions, which go with each box.

Every agent has circulars of these Pills to give away.

Half a Pill is the usual dose, though some require One Pill, or even more. Children of one year and over, one-quarter of a pill, of 7 years and over, half a pill. These Pills are purely VEG. T. B. F. and may be taken under all circumstances, without regard to diet or diet.

Hyer's Pills.

The American Improved Hygienic Vegetable Medicine.

SAFE, CHEAP, AND EFFECTIVE.

This medicine makes no pretensions to miraculous powers, the raising of the dead, or to immense and astounding sales daily and hourly, but the most approved method of the times; it bases all its claims upon plain common sense principles, as a simple and natural in restoring the human system to its proper tone and action, when by carelessness or unavoidable circumstances it has become deranged or debilitated, and asks simply a faithful trial as a test of its curative properties. During the last twenty years it has worked its way into extensive use, and upon its own merits, by commendation from individual to individual, not having been advertised for more than twelve years till within the past few months—save occasionally in a journal of which the present proprietor is Editor. The increasing demand, however, has measurably compelled greater attention to its business, and agencies are now being established throughout the country.

A faithful trial of a half dollar or dollar package is almost certain to secure use in every family where it is introduced, where medicine is needed. The undersigned has used it in his own family for more than fifteen years—has knowledge of its approved use in many others. (For periods varying from months to fifteen or sixteen years) as their only medicine, and knows it to be valuable in most of the complaints incident to the human system. But a long or extravagant commendation is not designed or needed here. Ten thousand more assertions in its favor will not make it valuable, or satisfy reasonable persons without a trial; for the proof, after all, must lie in the use of it. Try it, then. Read, try, and then judge.

Bogle's Hyperion Fluid; Or Vegetable Hair Composition.

THE subscriber has been induced to bring this article before the public, at the request of his numerous customers, among whom are physicians and citizens of the first respectability, who have adopted its use in their families, and wish others to participate in its advantages.

The Hyperion is composed of vegetable ingredients, the secret of compounding and blending which is known solely to the subscriber. It is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture never before attained, yet free of animal grease or essential oils. It cleanses the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action in the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which feed the hair, thereby preventing BALDNESS AND GREY HAIR.

It entirely frees the skin from Scurf, Dandruff, and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and changes the hardest hair into the most soft, glossy, and healthy state, also imparts to it a darker color, and the free use of it, both on the skin and hair, in a most healthy and luxurious state until the latest period of life.

Ladies will find the Hyperion a great addition to the toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the fluid, can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls.

When used on children's heads, it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

SAFE and certain cure for Rheumatism, or either chronic or inflammatory—Paralysis, or loss of the use of the limbs, contractions of cords and muscles, and gout, it matters not of how long standing; sprains, bruises, tumors, hard swellings and enlarged joints, yield to a few applications of this Linament. It has been used with incredible success in scrofula or king's evil, enlarged glands of the spine and hip joints, the doloureux, and all nervous affections. It is invaluable, and acts like a charm, stopping the bleeding of fresh wounds, and causing them to heal in a few days.

It has never been known to fail curing the most stubborn ulcers or fever sores and swollen legs, pain across the kidneys, in the chest, side, also still neck, sore throat and croup.

It speedily and effectually eradicates cutaneous eruptions of the skin in the form of salt rheum, erysipelas, pimples, ringworm or tetter, Barber's Itch, scald head, &c. It instantly removes toothache and headache. It extracts the pain and cures corns, bunions, chilblains, &c. Sold by R. J. TAYLOR, Agent for Newport.

MR. ABRAHAM VANDERBEEK, of 98 Avenue D., New York, certifies that his head was entirely bald on the top, and by the use of two 3s. bottles of Jones' Coral Hair Restorative, he has a good crop of hair, and will soon have it long and thick.

Mr. William Jackson, of 50 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa., certifies: On the 3d of February, 1817, that Mr. Thomas Jackson's head, on the top, was entirely bald for 15 years, and that by using two 3s. bottles of Jones' Coral Hair Restorative, the hair is growing fast and thick, and will soon be entirely restored.

Gray Heads! Gray Heads! Read—I hereby certify that my hair was turning gray, and that since I have used Jones' Coral Hair Restorative, it has entirely ceased falling—is growing fast, and has a fine dark look. Before I used Jones' Coral Hair Restorative, I combed out handfuls of hair daily. WM. TOMPKINS, 92 King-st, N. Y.

Mr. Power, a grocer of Fulton-st., had his hair choked up with dandruff, and Jones' Hair Restorative entirely cured it.

Do you want to dress, beautify, and make your hair soft and fine? Read—I, Henry E. Cullen, late barber on board the steamboat South America, do certify that Jones' Coral Hair Restorative is the best article I ever used for dressing, softening, cleansing and keeping the hair a long time in order; all my customers preferred it to anything else.

Sold only in New York at 82 Chatham street; and in Newport by R. J. TAYLOR.
